

QUENINGTON PARISH COUNCIL

Subject Access Requests Policy

1. On receipt of a subject access request it must be forwarded immediately to the clerk and chairman.
2. Quenington Parish Council (QPC) must correctly identify whether a request has been made under the Data Protection legislation
3. A member of staff, and as appropriate, councillor, who receives a request to locate and supply personal data relating to a SAR must make a full exhaustive search of the records to which they have access.
4. All the personal data that has been requested must be provided unless an exemption can be applied.
5. QPC must respond within one calendar month after accepting the request as valid.
6. Subject Access Requests must be undertaken free of charge to the requestor unless the legislation permits reasonable fees to be charged.
7. Councillors must ensure that the staff they manage are aware of and follow this guidance.
8. Where a requestor is not satisfied with a response to a SAR, the council must manage this as a complaint.

How must a SAR be carried out?

1. Notify the clerk and chairman upon receipt of a request.
2. Ensure a request has been received in writing where a data subject is asking for sufficiently well-defined personal data held by the council relating to the data subject. QPC should clarify with the requestor what personal data they need. They must supply their address and valid evidence to prove their identity. The council accepts the following forms of identification (* These documents must be dated in the past 12 months, +These documents must be dated in the past 3 months):
 - Current UK/EEA Passport
 - UK Photocard Driving Licence (Full or Provisional)
 - Firearms Licence / Shotgun Certificate

 - Building Society Passbook which shows a transaction in the last 3 months and your address
3. Depending on the degree to which personal data is organised and structured, QPC will need to search emails (including archived emails and those that have been deleted but are still recoverable), Word documents, spreadsheets, databases, systems, removable media (for example, memory sticks, floppy disks, CDs), tape recordings, paper records in relevant filing systems etc. which your area is responsible for or owns.
 4. QPC must not withhold personal data because you believe it will be misunderstood; instead, you should provide an explanation with the personal data. QPC must provide the personal data in an “intelligible form”, which includes giving an explanation of any codes, acronyms and complex terms. The personal data must be supplied in a permanent form except where the person agrees or where it is impossible or would involve undue effort. You may be able to agree with the requester that they will view the personal data on screen or inspect files on the premises. QPC must redact any exempt personal data from the released documents and explain why that personal data is being withheld.
 5. Make this clear on forms and on the council website
 6. QPC should do this through the use of induction, performance and training, as well as through establishing and maintaining appropriate day to day working practices.
 7. A database is maintained allowing the council to report on the volume of requests and compliance against the statutory timescale.
 8. When responding to a complaint, QPC must advise the requestor that they may complain to the Information Commissioners Office (“ICO”) if they remain unhappy with the outcome.
